Republican Treasurer Connected With No Less Than Seventeen Corporations.

ROOT USED AS ERRAND BOY In

New York, Oct. 2.-National Chairman Mack today made an attack on the corporation affiliations of George R. Sheldon, treasurer of the Republican national committee, charging that Mr. Sheldon is at this time connected with no less than seventeen financial companies. Mr. Mack made the following state-

"The trust and corporation affiliations of George R. Sheldon, treasurer of the Republican national committee for the past ten years, make interesting reading view of the recent developments in the campaign.

"I wish to recall in this connection that, because of these very accusations, Governor Odell in 1902 refused to permit the party leaders to put Mr. Sheldon in nation for lieutenant governor.

Why He Was Selected.

"Governor Odell at that time declared that he would not accept the renomina-tion for head of the state ticket if Sheldon were named as his running mate. But while the Republican party has refused to put up Mr. Sheldon's name for a public office, it has, for the identical reasons for this refusal, selected him for

"This cannot be denled. Most of the corporations with which Mr. Sheldon is identified are capitalized for millions. How much of their stocks is of the liquid which can be easily ascertained. Yet How much of their stocks is of the liquid variety can be easily ascertained. Yet Mr. Roosevelt has defended him and his resignation was not demanded when Mr. Dupont was invited to step down and out. Mr. Dupont was only identified with one trust, while Mr. Sheldon is at the present time intimately identified with no less than seventeen financial con-company, does not employ union labor, and has opposed the organization of its employes for the past sixteen years. "Mr. Sheldon is a director of that com-pany. He is also treasurer and director of the North American company, capitalized for $30,000,000, a concern known as the 'Mystery of Wall Street.' It is but a few years back since he was prominently identified with the 'whisky trust.' A glance at his connections with various companies for the past ten years will explain tersely the reason of his present position. No further comment of mine position. No

The corporations named by Mr. Mack include railway, industrial and financial concerns here and elsewhere. Chairman Hitchcock of the Republican national committee was shown Chairman Mack's attack on Treasurer Sheldon, but declined to make any statement. Mr. Sheldon said the statement did not contain anything to which he desired to re-

It was also stated that the president and Mr. Taft had objected to the collection of campaign funds from some of the corporations with which Mr. Sheldon is intimately associated. From others, it is said, Mr. Sheldon experienced diffi-culty in securing contributions. Mr. Root is said to have reported that "I will say this: Even though our constitution prohibits such action, such is the temper of the delegates after they have found out the despicable game that was worked at the expense of organized labor, that I believe that if we had another week's session the men would have changed the constitution and come out with a strong endorsement of Bryan. They would have done it as a rebuke to such men."

Harry Cook of Cincinnati, general organizer of the brotherhood, was another man who expressed himself very strongly. He endorsed all that Mr. Metz said in regard to the matter. He further said:

"It is a lucky thing for them that we did not know the full particulars before. We thought it strange that those men could come away out here, leave their positions and work and still be well supplied with money, for Cincinnati delegates knew that none of them had any too much money. Still we didn't figure out the particulars until the closing hours of the convention.

These two prizes would be regarded as more than sufficient in the ordinary contest, but in this unprecedented election they are only two of four capital prizes in a list that contains, in addition, sixteen grand prizes, each doubly worth the effort required to get it, and four special prizes, all of which are more fully described elsewhere in Another feature that distinguishes this contest from the ordinary affair of its character is the absence of "red tape" in connection with the nominations and balloting. It is simply a question of nominating and voting, without fuss, frills or feathers, which means that effort spells success. The policy of dividing The Herald's territory into districts, giving residents of each district equal opportunities with residents of the other districts, is already proving its merit. It has made it possible for the resident of the small community to enter the race on equal terms with the resident of the large community, a condition that is not to be found in the ordinary affair of the

The contest has been under way weeks now and will not close until Nov. 25, when all prizes will be awarded to those who have polled the most votes.
